

The Friends of the Annapolis Symphony Orchestra

Presents

Read Between the Wines

An Afternoon with Your Favorite Authors

Plus Wine and Refreshments

Sunday, December 7, 2008, 2pm – 4:30pm
Loews Annapolis Hotel, 126 West Street, Annapolis, Md.

Tickets $25 before the event/ $30 at the door

Best selling authors Donna Andrews, Jim Cheevers, Ellen Crosby, Dan Fesperman, Stormy Friday, Jeff Holland, Tom Horton, Paula Chase Hyman, Cheryl Klam, Katherine Neville, Craig Symonds, Marcia Talley and Marianne Taylor will thrill you with their accounts of how they started writing or what inspired them to write their latest book. Photographer Ian Plant will discuss what drew him to “picture” books. There will be an opportunity to have a one-on-one conversation with your favorite(s) and to purchase personalized, signed copies of their books as gifts for yourself and others for the holidays. You will also have an occasion to taste wines and participate in unique bidding for Literary Offerings which will include being a character in one of the author’s books and having a manuscript critiqued by one of the authors. A raffle of premier items is being offered before and during the event.

The Friends of the Annapolis Symphony Orchestra (FASO) is an organization dedicated to supporting the Annapolis Symphony Orchestra and to promoting an interest in music, especially by young people who are the next generation of musicians and concert-goers. ASO programs supported by FASO are Meet the Musicians, Music Van, Adopt-a-School partnerships, Educational Concerts and the Instrument Drive. FASO also awards an annual scholarship to a high school student who is continuing in music in college.

FASO wishes to thank the Loews Annapolis Hotel, Mills Fine Wine & Spirits, and Barnes & Noble of Annapolis for generously supporting this event.
